

MARKET POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

MISSION

To provide a facility which offers a diverse, enjoyable, effective service and environment to the benefit of vendors and the community alike.

OBJECTIVES

The primary aims of the Port Fairy Community Market (the 'Market') are to provide an opportunity for: 1) stallholders to generate a viable income by selling and promoting their produce; 2) consumers to buy a variety of fresh and non-mass produced goods in a safe, convenient environment and 3) the Community House to generate income and expand its profile within the community.

SCOPE

This document sets out the policy, procedures and responsibilities for stallholders wishing to participate in the Markets and the role of the Market Coordinator.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

- Port Fairy Community House Market is an all-weather market and stallholders must be prepared for adverse weather
- Stallholders are responsible for ensuring their products are protected and marquees are securely weighted and tied down. Stallholders must bring a minimum 4 marquee weights to every market & ensure they are in place once the marquee is erected.
- Port Fairy Community House may direct the pack down of a stallholder's site if deemed to be unsafe and no market fee refund will apply.
- Port Fairy Community House reserves the right to close the market in exceptional weather conditions and may prohibit the erection of marquees in high wind conditions.
- The Market will operate on days of Total Fire Ban. Port Fairy Community House will apply for a Total Fire Ban permit from the CFA which will allow stallholders needing to use gas cooking appliances on a day of Total Fire Ban to trade, subject to complying with all the conditions outlined in the permit.
- HEAT POLICY: In the event of extreme heat where the temperature exceeds 35 degrees C, at the discretion of management, the market may close earlier if conditions deem this necessary.
- If a CODE RED DAY for Port Fairy is called by the CFA the market will NOT operate that day.
- Stallholders may pack up their stall due to adverse weather but may not leave unless permission is given by the Market Coordinator.
- No refunds/credits are given for the cancellation of markets and/or reduced trading hours on market days due to adverse weather conditions.
- Port Fairy Community House will not be held responsible for any loss including fees paid by stallholders, damage or injury whatsoever resulting from adverse weather conditions.

UNSUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

Applicants who are unsuccessful will be advised in writing or by email of the reason/s for the decision and if and when they may be eligible to re-apply. Unsuccessful applicants who disagree with the decision and wish to request a review of the decision, may write to the Chair, Committee of Management, Port Fairy Community House, PO Box 136 Port Fairy 3284.

Please note that Port Fairy Community House reserves the right to make a final decision on any application to participate in the Market. It also reserves the right to refuse goods or produce sold in the Market and to exclude any stallholder who has been approved but who breaches or attempts to breach Market policy and procedures.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Port Fairy Community House reserves the right to make a final determination on any dispute in relation to this policy and its procedures. A complaint management system is available.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

The Port Fairy Community House social media policy relates to all social media channels including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram YouTube and any other digital sites being operated by Port Fairy Community House. This policy covers personal as well as business accounts.

Stallholders must not post a comment or content which is, or could reasonably be considered to be: unlawful, discriminatory, vilifying, menacing, harassing, offensive, threatening, stalking, violent, obscene, defamatory, infringing of intellectual property rights, misleading, false, deceptive, fraudulent or spam.

Stallholders must refrain from airing their grievances, negative opinions and/or views on contentious public issues on Port Fairy Community House/Markets social media pages or posts.

Port Fairy Community House may, at its absolute discretion and for any reason, delete any comment posted on its Facebook, YouTube or Instagram channels.

All stallholders are welcome to post on the event pages of markets they are attending to promote their stall. All stallholders are welcome to tag Port Fairy Community Markets in posts advertising their stall, products and/or attendance at markets. We will sometimes share these posts.

Port Fairy Community House reserves the right to cancel any future bookings of a stallholder who is in breach or does not comply with the Social Media Policy.

STALLHOLDER INDEMNITY

Without limiting the generality of any other provision of these policies, the stallholder hereby indemnifies and holds the Coordinator blameless from and against all claims for loss arising in connection with or in relation to:

- The Stallholder's occupation of the market
- The sale or attempted sale of the approved products or any other products or services
- Any injury or harm caused to any property or suffered by any person as a direct or indirect consequence, in whole or in part, of any act or omission by the stallholder
- Any loss or damage to the stallholder's property regardless of the cause of that loss or damage
- The death of any person of a consequence, in whole or in part, of any act or omission by the stallholder
- Any breach of these policies by the stallholder; or
- Any legal costs on a full indemnity basis incurred by the Coordinator as a result of the stallholder's breach of these policies.

MARKET COORDINATOR'S REPRESENTATIONS

The Market Co-ordinators consent to the stallholder to attend the market does not convey to the stallholder any ongoing rights in relation to the market into the future and such approval can be terminated by management at any time in writing and without any period of notice. The Market Coordinator reserves the right to undertake any of the following actions without notice:

- Re-locate a stallholder to another site within the market
- Require the stallholder to remove from sale any goods or services offered by the stallholder which are not approved products
- Request that the stallholder undertake any reasonable measure which in the opinion for the Market Coordinator will improve the safety of the site

WARRANTIES & REPRESENTATIONS OF STALLHOLDERS

The Market Co-ordinator permits the stallholder to attend the market in reliance on the following warranties and representations hereby made by the stallholder:

- The stallholder is the owner of the approved products with full power and capacity to sell absolute legal and beneficial ownership of the approved products to a third party without any encumbrance
- The stallholder is not in reliance on any representation or statement made by the Market Co-ordinator that is not expressly contained in these regulations.
- The stallholder is responsible for obtaining all relevant permits to operate the stallholders business and that all merchandise sold complies with all relevant safety and compliance standards and retail laws currently in force
- The stallholder does not bring into the market any hazardous materials or substances

Without limiting the generality of these terms, the stallholder acknowledges and agrees that Port Fairy Community House is not liable for any claim or loss suffered or incurred by the stallholder in relation to or in connection with:

- Theft or damage of approved products, equipment or goods under the control of the stallholder or any other property of the stallholder at any time including times when the market is not trading
- Any failure by the stallholder to sell the approved products
- Any journey from or to the market
- Damage or injury to any property or person

Limitation provisions are subject to statutory provisions. If statutory provisions apply, if applicable Port Fairy Community House liability is limited to the cost of the Market Coordinator refunding the site fee.

TERMINATION

The Market Coordinator reserves the right to withhold consent to a stallholder to occupy a site at the market, to remove or to have removed from the market, a stallholder who is in breach or does not comply with the policies, including where a stallholder:

- Fails to pay their site fee in a timely manner
- Fails to abide by the markets set up or pack up conditions
- Fails to abide by the market's trading hours
- Fails to abide by the terms and conditions of the market's policies and procedures
- Fails to limit the products offered for sale to approved products
